Don:

Per our conversation of today, attached is the request from the National Security Council to make arrangements for access to CIA documents at the Lyndon Baines Johnson (LBJ) Library. I am told that your History Staff has handled similar requests in the past.

Chief, ISS, therefore, asks that your people prepare the necessary response using previous similar letters as examples and forward through you to us as soon as possible. The letter should be for Chief, ISS signature to the Archivist at the LBJ Library with a carbon copy to the National Security Council.

Please note suspense date of 27 March 1980.
